SABC NEWS BIDS FAREWELL TO MS THABILE NGWATO

Johannesburg, Saturday, 18 August 2018-The South African Broadcasting Corporation's News division announces the departure of one of its popular news anchors, Ms. Thabile Ngwato. Ms. Ngwato resigned from the SABC to pursue business interests after five successful years of producing and presenting news at the SABC.

The Head of Television news, Ms. Nothando Maseko said, "We are sad to see Thabile leave but we are happy to have had the chance to work with her. She has been an absolute pleasure to work with and as a public service broadcaster we are happy that we have contributed immensely to her news presenting career. We wish her well and we would like to extend our gratitude to her for being devoted throughout her tenure at the SABC".

"I would like to express my gratitude for the knowledge, experience and lessons - and most importantly professional relationships built over the years. I am certain that this will add value in my new journey and future as an entrepreneur. – said Ms. Thabile Ngwato.

Ms. Ngwato's last news bulletin presentation is on Saturday, the 18th of August 2018. The SABC wishes her well in her future endeavors.
