CCMA RULES IN FAVOUR OF SABC IN DISMISSAL OF HLAUDI MOTSOENENG

The South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC) welcomes the Commission for Conciliation, Mediation and Arbitration (CCMA) decision which ruled in favour of the SABC, in the case brought forward by Mr Hlaudi Motsoeneng against the organisation, regarding his dismissal.

The decision vindicates the SABC's processes as procedurally and substantively fair. This is testimony of the effectiveness of the strategies that the SABC is embarking on to restore the credibility and integrity of the Corporation.

The SABC remains committed to enforcing sound governance procedures aimed at re-establishing a culture of accountability in the public broadcaster.
