PAYMENT OF SABC SALARIES RESOLVED

Johannesburg – Tuesday 29 January 2019 –The South African Broadcasting Corporation (SABC) reported earlier this morning that its employees had not been paid their salaries as expected, due to a technical error experienced by the financial institution. The SABC would like to advise that the financial institution has resolved the technical error and salaries are being paid.

The Corporation would like to thank its employees for their patience, support and apologise for any inconvenience caused, whilst the SABC was addressing the matter with the financial institution.
