RADIO 2000 ANNOUNCES RESHUFFLE

Friday, 30 October 2020 – The South African Broadcasting Corporation's (SABC) radio station Radio 2000, is pleased to announce an exciting reshuffling of on-air talent, following the resignation of Ms. Carol Ofori, who has been with the station since May 2019.

The vibrant Ms. Ntombi Phiri, who presented the popular 22:00- 00:00 programme 'Life Love and Music with Ntombi Phiri' on Monday to Thursday, will now move to one of the station's prime time slot of 09:00- 12:00, Monday to Friday, presenting the show, 'Better Together'.

Music gets better the later the hour, and Ms Mmatshenko Mosito will move from weekends to regale nighttime radio listeners on another brand new show, 'Essence and Rhythm', 22:00- 00:00, Mondays to Thursdays.

Mr. Sydney Baloyi who presents the programme, 'Golden Classics', on Fridays between 19:30- 21:00, will now also present the same programme on Sundays from 21:00-00:00.

Renowned broadcaster, Mr. Ike Phaahla in addition to his Sunday show, 'The Retrospective', 18:00- 21:00 on Sundays and will also present the programme, 'Solid Gold Saturdays', between 21:00- 00:00 on Saturdays.

Ms. Hazel Tlhabanyane, Radio 2000 Acting Station Manager commented "with Carol leaving the station it was important that we still maintain a strong female presence in the line-up. Moving Ntombi to the 09:00- 12:00, is the right move, as she has not only built a loyal following, but has proven to be a powerhouse in providing content which is line with the needs and wants of Radio 2000's audience. We wish our on-air presenters the best in their new roles, as we strive to further grow Radio 2000 audiences, through cutting-edge Adult Contemporary Music and Programming, whilst reflecting the diversity of our unique nation."
