SABC SPORT TO BROADCAST THE FA CUP ROUND 5 MATCHES LIVE ON SABC 1 AND SABC 3

Johannesburg- Monday, 08 February 2021 - SABC Sport, is pleased to announce that, as part of its Free-to-Air (FTA) rights to the English FA Cup, it will broadcast four selected matches of the 5th round of the FA Cup, live on SABC 1 and SABC 3 from Tuesday 9 February until Thursday 11 February 2021. The matches will also be available on the TelkomOne platform, SABC Sport's DTT channel, as well as live streaming via sabcsonline.co.za.

The FA Cup is the world's greatest football club competition and SABC Sport will broadcast the four selected matches as follows:

Match	Date	Time	Platform
Manchester United vs West Ham United	Tuesday, 09 February	21h15	SABC 3
Leicester City vs Brighton & Hove Albion	Wednesday, 10 February	21h15	SABC 3
Everton vs Tottenham Hotspur	Wednesday, 10 February	22h00	SABC 1
Barnsley vs Chelsea	Thursday, 11 February	21h30	SABC 3

The match between Leicester and Brighton, could see two South African players line up against each other at the King Power Stadium. Thakgalo Leshabela has come through the development structures at Leicester City and the midfielder is yet to make his debut in the Premier League. Percy Tau recently joined Brighton after being recalled from his loan spell in Belgium.

The SABC will also broadcast the two quarter final matches; the semi-final matches as well as the final match, live from Wembley Stadium on SABC 3. The dates for these matches will be announced in due course.
